A majority of the Committee will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of those present at any meeting at which there is a quorum will be the act of the Committee.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The following functions are expected to be the common recurring activities of the Committee in carrying out its responsibilities and duties. These functions should serve as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may carry out additional functions and adopt additional policies and procedures as may be required or appropriate in light of changing business, legislative, regulatory, legal or other conditions. The Committee will also carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board of Directors from time to time.

The Committee, in discharging its oversight role, is empowered to study or investigate any matter of interest or concern that the Committee deems appropriate and may, in its sole discretion, retain, obtain the advice of and terminate any search firm, consultant, legal counsel or other advisers, as it determines necessary or appropriate to carry out its responsibilities and duties, including the sole authority to approve the fees payable to such search firm, consultant, legal counsel or advisers and any other terms of retention. In identifying candidates for membership on the Board of Directors, the Committee will take into account all factors it considers appropriate, which may include (a) minimum individual qualifications, such as strength of character, mature judgment, familiarity with the Company's business and/or industry, independence of thought and an ability to work collegially and (b) all other factors the Committee considers appropriate, which may include age, diversity of background, existing commitments to other businesses, potential conflicts of interest with other pursuits, legal considerations such as antitrust issues, corporate governance background, various and relevant career experience, relevant technical skills, relevant business or government acumen, financial and accounting background, executive compensation background and the size, composition and combined expertise of the existing Board of Directors. The Committee also may consider the extent to which the candidate would fill a present need on the Board of Directors.

3. Review and make recommendations to the full Board of Directors, or determine, whether members of the Board of Directors should stand for re-election. Consider matters relating to the retirement of members of the Board of Directors, including term limits or age limits, as well as the performance of such directors.

In the case of a director nominated to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors due to an increase in the size of the Board of Directors, recommend to the Board of Directors, if applicable, the class of directors in which the director-nominee should serve and in accordance with any applicable provisions of the Company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation or amended and restated bylaws.

4. Evaluate candidates for nomination for election to the Board of Directors, including those recommended by stockholders on a substantially similar basis as it considers other nominees. The Committee may adopt such procedures for the submission of recommendations as it deems appropriate.
5. Conduct all necessary and appropriate inquiries into the backgrounds and qualifications of possible candidates to serve on the Board of Directors.
6. Consider questions of independence and possible conflicts of interest of members of the Board of Directors.
7. Review and make recommendations to the Board, as the Committee deems appropriate, regarding the composition and size of the Board of Directors in order to ensure the Board of Directors has the requisite expertise and its membership consists of persons with sufficiently diverse and independent backgrounds.

set forth in the charter for such committee, as well as to any other factors the Committee deems relevant, and where appropriate, make recommendations to the Board regarding the removal of any member of any committee.

11. Monitor the various committees of the Board of Directors, the qualifications and criteria for membership on each committee of the Board of Directors and, as determined appropriate by the Committee, make any recommendations to the Board regarding periodic rotation of directors among the committees and impose any term limitations of service on any committee of the Board of Directors.
12. Periodically review and/or evaluate the composition and structure of each committee of the Board of Directors and make recommendations to the Board of Directors for the creation of additional committees or the elimination of committees of the Board of Directors.

Reports

13. Report regularly to the Board of Directors including:
 - (i) following meetings of the Committee; and
 - (ii) with respect to such other matters as are relevant to the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities and duties.
